The Bioeconomy 500

2025's outstanding leaders of the bioeconomy's development and deployment

CJ Evans, Managing Director, American Diversified Energy Consulting

The Bioeconomy 500 recognizes individuals for their leadership contributions to the bioeconomy's development and project deployment. The Bioeconomy 500 honors scientists, engineers, policy makers, financiers, project developers, feedstock pioneers, offtakers, advocates and supply-chain and distribution partners. All Biofuels Digest subscribers were eligible to nominate candidates of their choosing.
